Call to Worship

Lynn Frennea, liturgist

Come, let us sing to the Lord!

Let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation!

Meet us in mud, in pools of healing, in a community of blessing.

Show us how we belong to one another and belong to you.

We are your people, gathered.

May our worship emerge from the light
you have given us to see truth.

We are your people, gathered.

May we find renewal and restoration, together.

Prayer of the Day

<sup>1</sup> I heard the voice of Jesus say,
“Come unto me and rest;
lay down, O weary one, lay down
your head upon my breast.”
I came to Jesus as I was,
so weary, worn, and sad;
I found him in a resting place,
and he has made me glad.

<sup>2</sup> I heard the voice of Jesus say, “Behold, I freely give
the living water, thirsty one;
stoop down and drink and live.”
I came to Jesus, and I drank
of that life-giving stream;
my thirst was quenched,
my soul revived,
and now I live in him.

<sup>3</sup> I heard the voice of Jesus say,
“I am this dark world’s light;
look unto me, your morn shall rise,
and all your day be bright.”
I looked to Jesus, and I found
in him my star, my sun;
and in that light of life I’ll walk
till traveling days are done.

Invitation to Reconciliation

Prayer of Brokenness

We confess, merciful God, that we have doubted the power of your Spirit and been cynical about what is possible in life.
We have resigned ourselves to the brokenness of our world
rather than relying on your strength and hope
for healing and change.
We have carried prejudices against others
that blind us to their worth and giftedness.
Forgive and transform us,
so that we come alive as your instruments of love and justice.
Speak to our hearts through your Spirit
and strengthen us to follow Christ,
to whom we open our hearts now in silence...

#578

1 O Lord, have mer - cy; O Lord, have mer - cy; O
2 O Christ, have mer - cy; O Christ, have mer - cy; O
Lord, have mer - cy, have mer - cy on us.
Christ, have mer - cy, have mer - cy on us.

Sermon

“People First”

The Rev. Joe Genau

<sup>1</sup> O carpenter, why leave the bench
where wood yields to your art,
and take instead, to try your skill,
the stony human heart?

<sup>2</sup> O carpenter, why leave the tools
to carry out your plans,
and go instead to do God's work
with empty, open hands?

<sup>3</sup> O carpenter, why leave the world of
of table, bed, and house,
to face the empire's carpentry,
to lift a Roman cross?

<sup>4</sup> O carpenter, why leave repairs
with wood and clamp and glue,
and rise from death to seek instead
to make the whole world new?

<sup>5</sup> O carpenter, who else could do
the work that you have done?
What can we do but sing your praise,
O Savior, Mary's son!

Hymn 618

O Love, How Deep, How Broad, How High

DEO GRACIAS

<sup>1</sup> O love, how deep, how broad, how high,
beyond all thought and fantasy,
that God, the Son of God, should take our mortal form for mortals' sake.

<sup>2</sup> For us baptized, for us he bore
his holy fast and hungered sore;
for us temptations sharp he knew,
for us, the tempter overthrew.

<sup>3</sup> For us by wickedness betrayed,
for us, in crown of thorns arrayed,
he bore the shameful cross and death;
for us gave up his dying breath.

<sup>4</sup> For us he rose from death again;
for us he went on high to reign;
for us he sent the Spirit here
to guide, to strengthen, and to cheer.

<sup>5</sup> All glory to our Lord and God,
for love so deep, so high, so broad:
the Trinity whom we adore
forever and forevermore.
